

Business Systems Analyst

Review Proposals, gather facts, analyze data, and prepare a project synopsis which compares alternatives in terms of cost, time, availability of equipments and personnel; evaluate and make recommendations from a business perspective, the feasibility of designing/revising new or existing computers systems; Analyze client's management information processing, determine computation needs, plan and design computer financial systems, utilizing techniques such as structured analysis, data modeling and management information gathering; Analyze information obtained from management in order to conceptualize and define operational problems; Analyze, design, develop, test, implement, modify and maintain complex computer programs and systems for the banking and finance industry; Assess, perform cost-benefit study and analyze the usefulness of pre-developed application packages and adapt them to a user environment to enhance enterprise productivity; Gather business requirements relating to banking software products, analyze, prepare, develop and monitor business specification documents; Analyze user needs and requirements; develop new programs to improve existing systems and workflow; determine software and hardware needs; Provide knowledge and expertise on the application including purchased and custom applications and interfaces; Provide guidance to technical staff during system design, coding, and delivering local developments; Work with end-users to gather requirements, design, code, test, implement , enhance and maintain applications; Implement procedures/function to enforce database consistency, integrity & security; Analyze financial impact of proposed business system solutions; Assist and train staff and end-users in proper use of computer systems and programs; provide technical assistance as needed; Monitor real-time performance of packaged and custom applications; Document analysis results in a concise and organized report; Assist employer with pre-sales support by demonstrating solutions and addressing queries by prospective clients; and Test, maintain, and monitor banking programs and systems, including coordinating the implementation and installation of banking programs and systems, and train personnel and users to work with new banking systems and programs.

Required: Associates degree (or equivalent as determined by qualified credentials evaluator) in IT/Comp. Sc./ Related field and 2 years Experience in job offered or in related IT occupation

Job site: 880 Apollo Street, # 357, El Segundo, CA 90245 (LA County)

Mail Resume to: hруса@sofgen.com