

SOFGEN inaugural Vietnam Digital Banking Seminar

Singapore, 8 September 2017: SOFGEN Services Pte Ltd recently held its first Digital Banking Seminar for the Vietnamese market at Pan Pacific Hanoi, Vietnam on 23 August 2017. At the seminar, SOFGEN shared its vast solutions-driven experience from Technology, Banking operations, advisory in the region to various CIOs and IT decision-makers for a number of Vietnamese banks.

Special invited keynote speaker and digital banking transformation leader, Dr. John C. Kelley shared his views on the reality of digital banking, on Fin-tech vs. fund-tech, and how banks in Vietnam can apply lessons learned in other regions.

SOFGEN presented its strengths in core banking programs which included consulting, integration, system audit and upgrade capabilities. This was followed by a presentation by Temenos Asia-Pacific Partner Manager on Temenos's partnership ecosystem built up throughout the years. The seminar ended with a Round Table discussion on the challenges in digital banking implementation.

Patrick Enjalbal, SOFGEN General Manager Asia Pacific said: "Within Banking and Financial Services, we are Asia's largest implementer of core banking solutions, benefiting from a long-term partnership with Temenos. As Temenos' Services Partner of the Year 2017 for the second year running, this seminar successfully underscores SOFGEN and Temenos' partnership and capabilities in the APAC and globally."
